The screenshot displays the Bedrock Learning user interface. At the top, there are navigation tabs: 'my progress', 'my stories', 'my settings', 'my progress', 'my settings', and 'my settings'. Below these are three summary cards: 'Weekly progress' with a progress bar from 0 to 20, 'Your points' showing 0 this week and 2460 all time, and 'Time spent' showing 29 secs this week and 8 last week. The 'My content' section features a grid of blocks: Block 3, Block 4 (highlighted), Block 5, Block 6, Block 7, Block 8, Block 9, Block 10, Block 11, Block 12, Jekyll & Hyde, and 37 Common Roots. Below this is a '102 GCSE English Terms' section. The 'Block 4' section shows four completed story cards: 'THE VIKINGS', 'THE CIRCLE OF LIFE', 'KING MIDAS and the GOLDEN TOUCH', and 'ALI BABA and the FORTY-THIEVES'. Each card includes a 'Completed' status, a progress bar, and a 'Details' button.

B 4 T10: The Greatest Sporting Rivalries Ever! Lesson 55

Hi there, sports fans! Thanks for joining us. I don't know about you, but watching some great competition between great athletes, if that sounds good to you, then you're in luck. Today, we're looking at five of the greatest rivalries to ever happen in sport. These athletes have fought and clashed with each other time and time again, trying to win. These competitions are exciting for lots of reasons. Sometimes, it's fun to see athletes push each other to do really difficult, amazing things, like run super fast, or score a goal from really far away. Other times, we're drawn in by what happens outside the sport. If two people or teams have a lot of hatred or contempt for each other, they try harder to beat each other. It's like watching heroes and villains fight in a superhero movie; we wonder what they will do to finally get the better of each other!

contempt

con-tempt

If you have contempt for someone or something, then you strongly dislike them and have no respect for them, usually because you think they are worthless or unimportant. If you really don't like someone, then you may feel a lot of contempt for them.

Example:

Lisa showed a lot of contempt for the boy who stole her favourite pencil case.

When do people or teams try harder to beat each other?

When they think that they are losing.

When they are doing difficult and exciting things.

When they really don't like each other.

When they're really good friends with each other.

English Homework

Points are tallied up every seven days and translated into the coloured face that teachers and guardians see in their activity report on a Monday

Green: 20+ points – well done, this is great usage and requires praise!

Amber: 10-19 points – good progress – encourage your students to keep on track

Red: 1-9 points – intervention required in order to encourage greater usage

Grey: 0 points means the student has either not logged in, or logged in but not done any learning

Praise

Intervene

This is how we allocate learning points on Bedrock. The goal is that students should achieve 20 points each week. If they achieve this, they need your praise!

- ✓ Completed pre-test or post-test: 5 points
- ✓ Started lesson: 2 points
- ✓ Completed and passed lesson: 8 points
- ✓ Completed but failed lesson: 3 points
- ✓ Successfully learned word in "words I am learning": 1 point
- ✓ Successfully remembered word in "words I have learned": 1 point
- ✓ Recapping words: 1 point
- ✓ Block or unit complete: 30 points
- ✓ Half a block: 15 points

Takeaway point

- Week 1: Alpha test
- Thereafter, 20 points per week
- The day that homework is due will be on Class Charts.
- Parent logon: all you need is the access code.
- Communication will be coming home with this information in writing (and how to log on).

- Sparx is coming to Fareham Academy soon
- Website: Sparxmaths.uk
- Your child will be given login details and these will also automatically be sent home to you as long as your e-mail contact details are registered with the school
- You will get weekly updates on whether your student has completed their homework by email directly from Sparx
- Homework will cover the current topic and also revise earlier topics

- Difficulty will automatically adjust to meet your child's needs and topics will be selected to target their areas of weakness
- Please do not help your child with their maths homework unless they have tried and input an incorrect answer at least twice – otherwise the difficulty will inflate above their level and homeworks will get harder.
- It may take 2-3 weeks for the software to settle on the correct difficulty – please be patient
